Description

This self-contained restaurant is arranged over three floors-ground, first, and basement-positioned within a busy town centre retail parade. The ground floor features an open-plan bar and large dining area with a fully equipped commercial kitchen. Upstairs, the first floor offers additional seating and a secondary bar, ideal for private functions or overflow dining. Customer restrooms are located in the basement. There is an external cold store and small yard to the rear.

The property benefits from gas and air conditioning throughout and boasts a traditional timber and plate glass frontage.

Convenient parking options include nearby public car parks and short-term on-street spaces for customer use.

Location

Harpenden is a vibrant market town with a resident population of nearly 30,000, located approximately four miles north of St Albans. The property occupies a prominent position on the western side of the High Street, in a bustling retail area home to a mix of national chains and independent retailers.

This side of the High Street enjoys strong pedestrian footfall, particularly from nearby residential neighbourhoods to the north of the town.
